General seminar conditions

Enrolment

Registration for participation in the above seminar must be made in writing by 14 March 2019. By registering, the participant acknowledges these general seminar conditions. Registrations will be considered in the order in which they are received.

Terms of payment

The participant must pay the seminar fee by 14 April 2019 at the latest. Costs for catering during the seminar are to be paid by the participant himself/herself. In the case of events lasting several days, the participant has to organize an overnight stay on his or her own and bears the costs for this. If the seminars are cancelled by Siegbert Engel or Liu Deming, they are not liable for any accommodation costs incurred.

Cancellation of seminars

Seminars can be cancelled or postponed for important reasons, especially if a seminar leader is absent or the number of participants is too low. A cancellation will be made in time, provided that no short-term and unforeseeable events or force majeure require a cancellation shortly before the beginning of the seminar. If a seminar is cancelled, fees already paid will be refunded in full. Further claims, e. g. with regard to already booked overnight stays, flights, train journeys etc., are excluded.

Seminar location change

Siegbert Engel reserves the right to change announced venues for organisational reasons. The quality of the seminar is maintained. The participant is not entitled to a reduction of the participation fee in case of a change of venue. Participants will be informed in good time of any change of seminar location.

Cancellation

In case of short-term cancellation by participants, costs already incurred (organisation, rent for the seminar room, booking of the seminar leader) cannot be cancelled. In the event of a cancellation, this must therefore be communicated in good time and in written form (letter or e-mail).

In case of cancellation, the following handling fees apply:

Cancellation of participation in a seminar is possible for a processing fee of 45,- € up to 8 weeks before the event date.

Cancellation up to 4 weeks before the seminar: 50% of the total seminar costs

Cancellation from 4 weeks before the beginning of the seminar: 65% of the total seminar costs

In case of cancellation less than 8 calendar days prior to the date of the seminar, 80% of the participation fees are due. In the event of non-appearance or cancellation on the day of the event, the entire participation fee is due. Cancellation fees apply per registered person. There is no charge for registering a replacement participant. It is recommended to take out a seminar insurance policy if necessary.

Liability

The seminar leaders do not assume any liability for lost clothing or other objects in the classrooms, as well as for damages due to the disregard of the traffic safety obligation, which is incumbent on the building owner. Damage claims due to non-performance or delay are excluded.
